Subtitle : English The summer before sophomore year begins, Alex Wilder has no interest in going to school, much less returning to the same old face-fucking, name-calling, rumor-spreading, cafeteria-dining hell that is her everyday school. Alex wakes up each day with the absolute certainty that things will only get worse, that she will have to attend more school-endangering humiliations, and that she would rather be anywhere than in her dorm room. But then she meets a boy who changes all that, a smart, funny, adorable boy who makes her feel like she could learn something about herself, and about life, in a school where the mean girls just want to be mean.  DETAILS  Open file 71: Into the Fire by submitting your movie for review.
