Neutral and Minority Whites Now I want to consider some of the evidence that suggests that the intellectual elite of the country are not so much a liberal elite as a very white, and specifically, white Christian, elite. I want to consider this evidence with some sympathy, though I do not believe that the evidence is entirely sympathetic. Consider that there are many perfectly lovely white liberals in the top 1% and beyond. They are people of high moral character and principle, to be sure. They do feel bad when they read an article in which liberals call other white liberals racist and claim that white liberal racism is a problem in the country. It isn't. But, as sociologist Peter Berger pointed out in the early 80s, "a person can live the most depraved hedonistic life and still be a moral person. The problem arises when the depravity is conducted on a large scale and the person leads a corrupting influence on the lives of those with whom he comes in contact. In such a situation, there is no justification for a redistribution of wealth to those less fortunate, even though the rich are morally responsible for the economic problems they brought about." Moral responsibility is not a problem. The morally responsible thing is to reduce the economically unpalatable effects of inequality. It is a little ironic that this is a problem of white people, since the history of the country makes it perfectly clear that it is white people who have been the principle victims of racism. To suppose that any of the evil of racism has been white people is to deny what many of us were taught by our white teachers, at least to some extent. So I do feel sympathy for those who see the racism of the white elite as an obstacle in the way of
