The government's dismissal of the Attorney General and then of the Director of Criminal and Penal Prosecutions was a great mistake and showed that Mr. Lisée and the government, the Liberals of course, just do not care about Canadians, about their families, about their everyday lives. It is time that the Prime Minister tell the people of Canada that he will keep his election promise, that he will show independence to the separatists, that he will rule Canada independently. There is one thing that he and the government are afraid of. It is the fact that Canadians will choose a leadership that is completely independent of Ottawa. That is the way to rid ourselves of the separatists, so let's please, finally, have Mr. Trudeau stand up and proudly announce that he will respect the will of the people.Q: AJAX + Fancybox not working with scrollTo I am using the nice Fancybox plugin with the scrollTo function on my page. Both AJAX and non-AJAX versions of the page work perfectly. I have some inline JS at the bottom of my page (in the body), but the following is my first time calling the Fancybox function on the page. For some reason, it doesn't work in combination with scrollTo: $(document).ready(function() { $('link').fancybox(); }); $(window).scroll(function() { if ($(this).scrollTop() > 250) { $('link').fancybox(); } }); Basically, when 1cb139a0ed
