"Sex and an Imaginary Friend" October 1, 1858 You were here, you were with me, you came to my aid in the most difficult moments.
(After all, you won't leave me in trouble?
After all, you will always be by my side?) I am grateful to you for being there, in the most difficult moments, in that period of my life when, despite everything

that happened, I felt terribly lonely when there was no close person nearby. At that moment you didn't have to take care of me, you could manage without me, but you didn't give up, you took responsibility for everything I lived, and you supported me. It was very important for me, because then I felt that I could handle it myself, that I was strong and could stand up for myself. And besides, it was such a support that I had never experienced before. And it gave me confidence in myself. Sometimes you wanted to say something to me, but did not dare. You were by my side, but it was my business, it was only my choice. You could have said that it was their business, that they had the right, but it wasn't. I remember you once offered me a compromise. You said that if it's true that love is only a feeling, then you will have to think carefully about whether I should stay with him or not. You didn't tell me that you love him, you just said it like it is. This is one of those things that struck me then. I realized that now that he wants to end the relationship, he needs to think things over. And I realized that this was possible. And at that very moment I made a decision that I could not refuse. I said, "What if I say yes? If I love him? If I want to be with him and live his life?" You were very surprised

---
