[Time] The 7 Best Movie Trailers of 2013 Time is the fourth studio album by American rock band Arcade Fire, released on September 15, 2013 through Merge Records. The album marks the band's first release on Merge, which was home to The Arcade Fire's 2007 effort, Funeral. Following the success of The Suburbs, Arcade Fire opted to continue recording at a more DIY level. Expecting a more intimate approach to production, the band sought to record alone, resulting in more stripped-down and stripped-back sound; the album is largely inspired by the band's desire to record a record that was "not overproduced" (Neumayer). Writing and recording took place at Recording Arts Interchange in Montreal, Quebec. "We were moving forward, with a sense of confidence and a sense of urgency. We were finally sure of what we wanted and we knew what we didn't want" (Neumayer). Upon its release, Time received widespread critical acclaim from both mainstream and independent music critics. Commercially, the album peaked at number two on the Billboard 200, selling 128,000 copies in its first week. By January 2014, Time had sold over one million copies in the United States, and the Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA) announced that it was certified platinum, marking the first time a Canadian musician had achieved this certification. The album's first single "We Exist" debuted at number three on the Canadian Hot 100 and number 44 on the US Billboard Hot 100, marking Arcade Fire's highest position at the time in both countries. The second single, "Powerful Like Love", also debuted at number three in Canada and at number 20 in the United States, becoming their highest charting single in the latter. The third single, "Normal Person", became their first number one single in the United States. It subsequently became the longest-running number one Canadian single of 2013. Time has since been certified 2× Platinum by Music Canada, and was ranked number 11 on Pollstar's Year End Top 100 Worldwide Tours and number 13 on Pollstar's Year End Top 25 Worldwide Tours. Time has received a Diamond certification from the RIAA. It was also named the 3rd best album of 2013 by Rolling Stone. It won the Juno Award for International Album of the Year. Time has won the 2013 Grammy Award for Best Alternative Music Album, and the readers of Time chose the record as the 2013 Album of the Year, while the
