Airships were a booming business in the late 19th century. An especially luxe mode of transportation, the dirigibles were a far cry from the propeller-driven airplanes we know today. We're sure many of you are familiar with the story of the Hindenburg, right? The German ship was the first passenger-carrying dirigible when it launched in 1923. The first zeppelin (literally "air bag"), the airship was built with a gas-filled balloon and it was this balloon that made the Hindenburg so large (the largest ship in the world at the time). What makes the Hindenburg disaster so infamous is the fact that 97 people lost their lives, including five Americans. Is it hard to imagine that something like this could happen today? The Hindenburg was a spectacular, state-of-the-art technology machine, albeit a bit hulking for passenger comfort. It was a quasi-military aircraft that served

To examine the use of antidepressant prescriptions (AD) issued by general practitioners (GP) in England, and to assess the impact of their prescription on hospital admissions. Nationally representative data from GP, Practice Patient File, Hospital Episode Statistics. Enrolment in study cohort was defined as the first AD issued to a GP practice patient during a defined period (1st January 2000-31st December 2009). The AD was compared to a cohort of comparison patients prescribed no AD. Analysis of marginal effects was performed using a negative binomial regression model. In 2008, there were 75,192,455 AD issued and 193,076,737 issued in comparison group. The rate of AD prescribing was higher for women than men (1.75 and 1.38 per 1000). Rates of AD prescribing were lowest in the 65-69 years age bracket, but remained relatively stable between the ages of 60-64 and 50-54 years. AD rates were highest in the North West, Yorkshire and the West Midlands. Over the 11-year study period, the rate of AD prescribing increased by 1.14 per 1000 (P Q: Can some one tell me how to properly import a shader using glslify I want to use the following soket from: I've tried to import it in 2 ways, and both don't work. ## What's New in the?

Following the release of Service Pack 1 (SP1) for Windows 98 in November 1999, Microsoft continued to improve and increase the stability and compatibility of the Windows 98 operating system. During this time, they included the SP2 and SP3 releases, but the company eventually realized that the computer's hardware upgrades would not be able to keep up with the end of the Windows 98 operating system's life-cycle. Therefore, in June 2002, Microsoft announced that they would halt the development of all Microsoft products on the Windows 98 platform including the Windows 98 Second Edition (SP3 release) and Windows 98 OSR2. The only known official release for the Windows 98 SE operating system was an unofficial release from Microsoft called Windows 98 Second Edition Service Pack, released in August 2002. In August 2005, the current Internet Explorer for Windows 98 was released, and included the Internet Explorer 7 engine. In May 2008, the version of Internet Explorer 7 for Windows 98 was released. In December 2009, the last known version of Windows 98 OSR2 and Windows 98 Service Pack 3 were removed from the Microsoft site. In early 2010, Microsoft released the last known version of Windows 98 and the discontinued Windows NT 4.0 and Windows 2000 operating system platforms. In late 2010, all personal computers running the Windows 98 Operating System, including Windows 98 SE, Windows 98 OSR1 and Windows 98 OSR2 were discontinued. The software was no longer supported by Microsoft. In the context of this article, the unofficial service pack refers to the official
