We have considered every contention of the defendants that was not expressly passed upon and find nothing so objectionable that it ought to cause any retraction of our original opinion 2 According to the record, the co-defendants were Walke & Co., Richard M. Conway and John S. Simmonds 3 By a previous opinion of this court, the Fountain Valley exchange case, supra, being the last one which touched on the problem, it was held (291 F.2d at 955) that the defendants, New Jersey Central, are the only party entitled to recovery 4 The letter of March 9, 1958 was by the General Counsel of the board to the United States Commissioner of Patents which was quoted in our opinion, 289 F.2d at 953 5 Although a few cases may be found in which the courts have applied estoppel against the government with respect to procedural questions, they do not militate for the government here. See Davis, Administrative Law Treatise, ch. 4, § 15.04 (1958). In the first place the administrative proceedings were not brought or conducted by the government, and second there is not the same procedural consideration involved. See 2 Davis, Administrative Law Treatise, § 11.02 (1958) 6 "The common law of England, so far as it is not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States, shall be the common law of the District of Columbia." D.C.Code § 45-104 (1951) 7 The purpose of estoppel is the same in every case, that is, to carry out the intention of the contracting parties. The rule is a rule of policy and not of right. A right to insist upon the rule 570a42141b
