Web Browser Icons is a collection of free-to-use icons created specifically for use with the Internet. The icons have a low-resolution, 256x256-pixel format and are meant for the installation on a Windows system.

Unlike other collections, such as PNG files, all the icons in the pack have the same resolution. All you need to do in order to switch from one to the other is to open the file in Windows Explorer and drag it over the one you want to replace. Main features: 4 different resolutions – 48x48, 64x64 and 128x128 pixels, as well as 256x256 pixels High-quality 256x256 PNG icons in the same color scheme as the original icons will function in all browsers and applications Tiny

Cleaner The Tiny Cleaner is an application that is built specifically for cleaning up the way the computer looks. Its main purpose is to remove useless files, temporary files, documents and other debris from your hard drive. You can use this application to thoroughly clean up the system and also to clean up your cache. In addition to all of these, the application also has tools for maintenance and optimization of the system. The application itself is very easy to use. Once you start it, the interface will display a warning window informing you that the application is still being developed, and that it may not function as expected. This means that you should proceed with caution and only run the program if you're sure that it is working as expected. In order to effectively clean up the system you must make sure that the Temporary and System Files folders are empty, while other folders can be emptied manually. With this done, you can select the options you want from the main window. As far as the main window is concerned, you have the option to select one of three cleaning modes: Deep Cleaning, Cache Cleaning or Maintenance and Optimization. The Deep Cleaning option will remove the following folders on the system:

Cache Desktop Recycle
Bin Extras Fonts
Internet Explorer
System Programs
Temporary Temper
Dark Temper Dark is a software application created specifically for improving the way the system looks. It is a fully automated tool that automatically creates dark backgrounds for Windows systems. The application creates the background automatically in just a few simple steps. In order to make the process easier for all users, the application has a User-friendly interface that doesn
