The clock not only displays the time, but the correct time (both in local time and UTC) in a human voice. ClockTV comes in a number of different skins and themes, providing a great new way to quickly know the time without the hassle of having to look up the clock. The skins are in the theme browser and allow easy customization of the clock. If you are tired of using the default clock on the taskbar, or you just prefer using a different theme, this is the perfect solution for you! NOTICE: By default, ClockTV uses the media control panel to play the system alarm sound. This is only available in the English version of Windows XP. To prevent the alarm sound from playing, go to ClockTV>Advanced Settings>Notifications and disable the "Play system sound on wakeup" option. You can now also silence your alarm by selecting "Silence alarm" from the notification area. You can also set the alarm time by selecting "Set alarm" from the notification area. Features: - Correct time display (both in local time and UTC) in human voice. - Pause, restart, stop, and resume the alarm. - 12 and 24 hour format. - Animate the alarm sound when the alarm is about to go off. - Configurable alarm sound. - Media control (music and video).
