Writing on Facebook on Monday, Labour MP for Ealing North and member of the all-party parliamentary group on Palestine and Israel, Rupa Huq, said: "I'm delighted that LFI have released a statement confirming that the country of Israel is a racist regime with a long record of oppression. I'm also delighted that LFI have received the support of Unite (the country's biggest trade union). "I've welcomed the official Labour Party position that groups that aren't on the right side of the Palestine debate are not welcome. "If LFI had been on the right side of the Palestine debate they could have become a valuable ally for Labour in ensuring that the Tories don't win the election, instead they have become a divisive, partisan and anti-Semitic organisation. "As a member of the all party parliamentary group for Palestine, I will be working with this group to ensure that LFI are closed down." When asked for a response to Huq's statement, which has been shared almost 2,000 times, a Labour Friends of Israel spokesperson said: "The Labour Friends of Israel is a not-for-profit
