Ilm and Jafar Chapter01 | Best Islamic Books in Pakistan | Merban Ali.n Book details Author: Mehrban Ali Total pages: 100 Language: English and Urdu available. Many centuries ago, a simple but brave boy lived in his native Alba, a province of Pakistan in the eastern part of Tograb.Even at a young age, he left his homeland for the creation of a new republic - Pakistan, a state that is Islamic, in which Sharia law and the laws of his Prophet apply. His thirst for freedom caused him to go to a monastery, where he stayed for twenty-three years. There he studied and lived in harsh conditions. As a result, having perfectly comprehended the science of survival, he single-handedly crossed the abyss that separates the two worlds - military and religious. And then, he became one of the leaders of the resistance to the Pakistani state. His amazing stories, sometimes even instructive, have become an integral part of the life of ordinary Muslims. When I was defeated in the war with the British army, I converted to Islam and settled in Karachi. There I became the imam of the mosque, which became the most respected in Pakistan. And many people come to my grave who come here to pray for the last time, asking forgiveness from their father for the fact that the children sold his land to the British. These people have not forgotten me and honor the memory of their father. he told his fans in Gazelle. His works have been translated into many languages of the world. Including in Russian. Readers enjoy reading his novels and short stories. Even in such a work far from reality, he managed to convey to the viewer the main meaning - that you need to boldly look forward and never retreat. And never regret what you did. Shark Publishing House 16118 Russia, Moscow, st. Makarenko, 2, building 1 Tел. (499) 157-25-06 Posted by Nils Almgren on 27 Feb 2016, 00:18
