Songdaak Suansa "Songdaak Suansa" ("Together We Sing") was the South Korean entry at the Eurovision Song Contest 1995, performed in English by RYU. The song was performed tenth on the night (following Malta's Æventyr, Stefano with his "Canto d'Amore" and preceding Denmark's Bent Fabric with "Tell Me on a Sunday"). At the close of voting, the song had received 52 points, placing 5th in a field of 20. The song is a ballad, with RYU singing that "Together we sing with the spirit to make music", sung from the perspective of a couple ("we / go away together") and of a community ("we join together / to make music"). For his part, he asks other couples to dance with her. The song was succeeded as South Korean representative at the 1996 Contest by Kim Hyun-jong with "Sunrise".
