Related News I'm the only one who knows how the conversion has been going in Hollywood. It's been a bit tricky. It's not easy when you have me in the middle. It's all very complicated. I didn't say he was short and I didn't say he was tall. We have a very confused record as we work with this guy. It's all very complicated. But we are very happy that we... Transcript This is a rush transcript created by a contractor for NPR, as a public service. Joyce: It's the morning after the Super Bowl and the big game here is whether or not the Patriots win the game or the Rams win the game. And we have the in-studio team that's up today. Jim Rome, Mel Kiper Jr. and Chris Berman. Let's talk sports, Super Bowl! Kiper: I think there are a lot of parallels. First of all, both teams, the Rams in the Super Bowl and the Patriots in the championship, they've got a lot of older guys with long Hall of Fame careers. Bill Belichick and Sean McVay, you might have noticed my beard is a little bit better than yours. Joyce: (Laughs) Kiper: He looks a lot better than I look this morning. They've got some depth at the skill positions. You've got Todd Gurley and it's going to be a tough game for them. And of course, this is a rematch that's been built up to
