The beautiful beaches, iconic charm and soaring ocean cliffs of Lombok have made it a favorite destination for tourists and locals alike. Welcome to Lombok Sukadana Beach has been one of the most popular places to visit for years. A place to kick back and relax in style. Sukadana is a small beach that lies across the street from the more popular, Kuta Beach. When you’re in Sukadana, there are so many things to do. Hiking is probably the most popular activity in Lombok. There is so much to do. The island is home to incredible cliff-side hikes, which provide spectacular views and spectacular landscapes. For the beginner, there are numerous easier hikes. When you’re ready for more adventure, there are plenty of more challenging trail hikes to take. There are about 11,000 bamboo huts on the island of Lombok. Every hut has to be hand built by a local family and is usually located off the side of a hill or cliff. Very cool, don’t you think? With the local culture and surroundings, Lombok is an incredible opportunity to be part of the local community, and learn a little bit of their language. Lombok is a primarily Muslim island and, while you don’t have to pray here, you don't have to do anything else either. Here’s the short version of how you can show your respect and get the best deals on accommodations. Lombok is a tropical island. The weather is comfortable all year long. The best time to visit Lombok is from January through December, and the driest season is June through September. These are the best things to do in Lombok. Explore the coast and villages Kuta Beach is in the central Lombok Province, and is the perfect place to visit from both the airport, and Gili Islands. It’s the most popular beach destination in Lombok, and is known for great beaches,
