"Oleg and I did a great job together in Detroit in 2009 where we combined to go 11-6 and play in our first playoff game. "I think that worked out very well for both of us. I think it's a good combination of guys. It gives us good depth at two positions and we have good experience there. "I don't know if there's anything to really worry about. It was a great job by the coaches. They knew where we were vulnerable, and they had the answers to that. "It was a well-designed game plan. The focus was good on our part, offensively, and defensively, the way we played. We made it tough on them. We worked hard in practice. "Obviously, we didn't execute everything on offense like we did on defense, but they took advantage of some things on offense."Workforce Responses to Injuries Related to Occupational Falls in the United States, 1991-2014.
