“Our goal with FIFA is to accurately depict the rich and engaging gameplay that only football can provide,” said Olivier Rondet, Head of Franchise Development at EA SPORTS. “By making it much easier for users to personalize the character, have more personality and feel the pressure of acting in-game, we hope to create an even more fun and realistic experience. We’ve also removed the artificiality of FIFA Ultimate Team and introduced a range of new coaching interactions as well. This will be a significantly deeper and more engrossing experience for players and fans.” HyperMotion Technology captures real-life movement data during the player and ball physics and animations are adjusted to reflect these actions – much like the way real players move in the game. HyperMotion technology also provides realistic, action-driven cuts and transitions, smooth movement with no load screens, the ability to control where free kicks are landed, and more. FIFA PS4 Core Highlights The FIFA video game franchise has hundreds of millions of players around the world. With the FIFA for PlayStation 4 system, enjoy authentic-feeling gameplay that so accurately reflects real-world soccer where even the smallest details make a difference, all-in-one system that is beautifully designed to bring out the true game-feel of soccer and PS4, and expertly optimized controller and motion-sensing controller gameplay options to support players of all levels and skill. ## Fifa 22 Features Key:

- Work your way through the game as one of the world’s greatest players.
- Discover the hidden greatness in the FUT Ultimate Team model, with four brand new packs to enhance your squad including a brand new Brazilian midfielder and defender.
- Perspective provides context – create a world that suits you and then step into the shoes of your favorite player.
- Agents are back! Team up with real-life managers and analysts to guide your club to the heights of the competitive pyramid.
- New tactics – with passive and active formations, use them to make each game uniquely yours. Play with up to four players on the pitch at once, or slip into the shadows to outsmart your opponents.
- Player animations have been improved – players now react to shots, passes, defense, and even off-the-ball collision naturally. Everyone interacts with the game world more realistically.
- Focus on the pitch – the introduction of new ref play modes lets you focus on the game by changing the number of assistant referees and cards on the pitch in real-time.
- Speed and control – added dribbling options, new ball physics, and sharper reactions.
- Challenge your friends and family – play the new local Seasons mode where you can face off with other online FIFA players in the game
- Improve your skills, compete, and track your career stats – put your best foot forward in FIFA’s first skill-based career mode in an all-new Training Centre.

- Career story mode – go behind the scenes at the world's greatest clubs as you progress through the game as a player or manager.
