Gardner Gardner Gardner Gardner Aloha, I'm Gardner Gardner. I'm a life-long resident of Hawaii and a lifelong surfer. My family moved to Hawaii in 1976. I grew up surfing every day. Waikiki Beach is where I first caught a wave. I was hooked on surfing almost immediately. I grew up with a strong sense of loyalty to Hawaii and its people. This is always the reason that has led me to fight to keep the waters open and unbroken. In the '70s, I worked for various surfing magazines, such as Surfer, Surfer's Journal, and Surfer's Today. In the '80s, I ran Surf Shop Hawaii which was a popular surf store on Waikiki Beach. In the '90s, I opened my own surf school on the north shore of Oahu, called "Kailua Sailboards and Surf School". In 2000, I started working for the Master's Surfing Association. In 2001, I became the first executive director of the Master's Surfing Association (MSA) and was responsible for overseeing the development of local chapter rule boards. In 2007, I started working for the World Surf League (WSL). I have been a WSL staff member since then. These days, I also occasionally commentate surfer's contests, such as the Men's and Women's division.. Millions of people, in what some have called the "Trump effect," are waking up and choosing truth over lies. Against the huge echo chamber of the lie-sphere, the voice of reason is thriving, with a growing number of people refusing to "fall into line." One effect of this awakening is the rise of an international battle against the Globalist Agenda. Truly, this is a fight about our children's
