Unique and fast way to process PDF Files in a few minutes. It offers a clean and intuitive interface which allows you to handle PDF metadata and digitally sign PDF files in a few minutes. It allows you to add files from your computer to a list using the built-in browse function, without having to rely on the "drag and drop" support. The program is especially useful if you want to add data about the author, title, subject, keywords, creator, producer, as well as enter information about the reason, contact, and location of the PDF file. The program can be set up to use a defined certificate or manually upload your own PFX file to sign your PDFs. Key Features:

- A few minutes of initial setup.
- It does not leave any traces in the Windows Registry.
- Easy to use: simple and intuitive interface.
- Provides the possibility to use a predefined certificate or manually upload your own PFX. •

Fast & reliable. • Privacy protection.
• Lightweight on system resources. •
Works with all Windows versions. •
Clean and appealing user interface. •
Fast and accurate workflow.

Setup Files PDF Digital Signature is a lightweight Windows application whose purpose is to help you view and edit PDF metadata, and digitally sign PDF files in the easiest way possible. Since this is a portable program, it is important to mention that it doesn't leave any traces in the Windows Registry. You can copy it on any USB flash drive or other devices, and take it with you whenever you need to modify PDF metadata on the breeze, without having to go through installation steps. PDF Digital

Signature sports a clean and simple layout that allows users to add files to the list using the built-in browse function, so they cannot rely on the “drag and drop” support. PDF Digital Signature gives you the possibility to specify the saving directory and filename, upload the PFX certificate, as well as encrypt sensitive data by setting up passwords. Other important features worth mentioning are represented by the possibility to manually set up the dedicated parameters related to signature position, make the signature visible, and check the log section for possible errors. What's more, when it comes to modifying the metadata, you are allowed to provide details about the

===== mechanical_fish I thought this was a parable. But it is only a list of nouns. The _list_ of nouns is fine. I like that. I even like the numbers. I would not even try to make a list of verbs. But _embrace_? That's just wrong. Be _open-minded_? Are you an idiot? The list does not work as a list of concrete actions; I need a more concrete list of concrete actions. This is just a set of adjectives! I like this sort of thing. This is all over the place. This is not technical. But it is useful. And if I were the sort of person who tried to remember exercises like this I would not be the sort of person who remembered. I'd become a person who remembers things. Like a technical person. ----- breck I wouldn't call the non-technical manager a manager. A manager is someone responsible for the development and deployment of products/features. The non-technical manager is responsible for the development and deployment of people. ----- mvzink I haven't read this blog post yet, but it feels like it's very long-winded. There's a lot of words that make no sense to me (being native English). I don't think it works as a post I'd reblog, as it doesn't have a clear thesis or point that is broken out into a few sentences. To be honest, I found a lot of the examples of "having told" and "not having told" to be confusing. I think more people would understand it if it was just presented much more simply. Otherwise, I feel
