Read on for some of the new tricks and features introduced in FIFA 22 on Wednesday. FIFA 22 introduces a new "Football Intelligence" system. The new AI system will enable the manager and players to make more strategic decisions, using more detailed real-time intelligence of the match situation. This intelligent system will operate in some key areas of the pitch such as goalkeepers. "FIFA 20 showcased the possibilities of AI within a game," said Producer Marcus Söderlund. "This year we have even made bigger strides in Football Intelligence, adding a unique and complex AI system that provides the manager with more realistic and detailed information which can be used to make more informed decisions." "We've worked closely with the ball physics team to ensure the ball moves and spins the way it does in real life. "The new ball is directly inspired by the Under Armour ball and we have added new contextual physics that will produce a more authentic ball. Additionally, we have improved the level of interaction with the ball, allowing players to alter and improve the movement of the ball at every moment of the match." Read on for more of FIFA 22's story mode details... Story Mode Main Theme: The Final Chapter Single-player mode is getting a revamp, with new levels, game modes, scenarios, careers and the return of the Battlegrounds mode. The new game mode introduces a new 'flood-the-midfield' tactic. Under this tactic, you will be able to flood the whole midfield for fast-paced and fun game modes. Main Theme: The Final Chapter also includes an all-new theme that begins every match. FIFA Story Master League is the story mode's new multiplayer experience. Up to 32 players are invited to The Final Chapter. The story mode includes new game modes, such as new challenges and scenarios, a new rank system and new rating system. The online multiplayer elements of FIFA Story Master League also return in a new content update. It also includes additional interactive features, including crowds that cheer for your goals, augmented reality elements, and new social features to help keep you connected to the world around you. FIFA Mobile - FIFA Mobile is the ultimate football experience from the makers of FIFA, exclusively for smartphone and tablet devices. FIFA Mobile provides a deep and realistic football experience with intuitive controls and fluid gameplay that has never been on mobile. PES 2017 Road to the Premier League PES has taken the road to the Premier League and created a dynamic new experience that looks and plays just like its console brothers. The Road to the Premier League features a range of matches played across a completely redesigned pitch which not only captures the beautiful similarities of the stadiums, but also the hostile nature of the pitches. This is a relatively new addition in the PES series, perhaps the closest that the series has yet come to replicating the atmosphere of the Premier League. While the presentation is decidedly more PC, it is a great addition to make the experience feel more right. Features: The Road to the Premier League features a host of enhanced gameplay elements and improvements to the presentation that will make PES 2017 the most authentic experience on mobile. The Road to the Premier League features a completely revamped and authentic pitch - every pitch in the Road to the Premier League has been recreated from top-to-bottom based on first-hand experience from players, scouts and the team at Konami. Inspired by the true spirit of PES matches, players and clubs have been recreated with unique PES player models and bespoke animations, with authentic team names and a fully customized presentation to match the intensity of the real world. FIFA Trainer FIFA Trainer is the best way to improve your FIFA gameplay. It runs within the game and uses the footballs CPU to simulate the movement of the players and analyse the game strategy. F
