The next-generation GK engine allows the manager to make the right play at the right time. With a new slide-tackling system, players can slide-tackle with more precise controls and aim for specific areas of the body to tackle with the slide tackle. The new Defending system has been improved based on fan feedback, with more defensive options and a more satisfying feeling of strength as you press the attacks. FIFA 22 introduces enhanced goal celebrations, special moves and unique goal animations based on each squad's playing style. It will be available for PlayStation 4, Xbox One, Windows and Nintendo Switch on September 28. FIFA's players and technical staff led the development team for FIFA 22. or performance. The FCC's inspector general has opened an investigation into whether any inappropriate coordination occurred between President Trump's campaign, the Trump transition team and the Russian government, according to a report by the Associated Press. As a result of that investigation, the FCC has launched a formal probe of two high-profile campaign officials, campaign manager Paul Manafort and adviser Michael Flynn, over their ties to Russia, according to the report. "The FCC said the probe will look into whether there was any coordination between Trump campaign officials and people tied to the Kremlin, and whether Russia interfered with the campaign," according to the report. Manafort has worked with the pro-Kremlin Party of Regions in Ukraine. Manafort also has ties to a Russian billionaire accused of financing an attempt to remove a democratically elected president from power. Manafort's deputy on the campaign, K.T. McFarland, resigned last week in the wake of reports that she had spoken last August on a hot mic about "going to Russia" and said the "C.I.A. is going to be running a lot of things now." The two other officials on the team that

EA SPORTS FIFA 22 reveals fresh new faces and a rich, new visual makeover powered by a new host of innovations. FIFA is back with purpose, ambition, authenticity and a commitment to provide the most immersive soccer gaming experience to date. Digital Soccer City “This year we are so confident that we are going to deliver the most authentic football experience that you will remember; FIFA is back!” said FIFA Director of Product Peter Moore. “Our goal with FIFA is to deliver the best football experience out there. We will continue to invest in FIFA and our players as we strive to give our fans the most authentic experience possible.” With the game’s new all-new MatchDay Experience, delivering a fresh new fan experience. FIFA is the only sport to offer a unique and immersive experience with social features and a player view that no other football game offers. FIFA FIFA is back with a host of new gameplay innovations, including an all new Player Intelligence engine; dynamic Player Precision Dribbling; Precision Dribble Control; 2,000 new player animations; a new game engine that’s twice as efficient and allows for increased player and environment detail; and a new innovative, crowd-based gameplay experience. New FIFA Intelligence The game's Player Intelligence system has been redesigned to provide a deeper understanding of the game's diverse set of players by building on player-reported data, on-field data and new AI-powered methods. The new Player Intelligence system delivers a more natural, flexible movement and collision response for players, while also giving players feedback as to their player performance within the game. FIFA Intelligence is designed to get players back on the ball and back into the game faster, while also helping players execute more precise and natural touches for the game. Players can also work with their coaches to ensure they are playing in a way that helps them perform best. New FIFA Precision Dribbling Players will now be able to glide, spin, cut and play a variety of passes in dribbles. Players will now learn to use their intelligence to play around their markers by dribbling a variety of passes, with easier dribbles that allow for greater player control. FIFA players will have greater control and fluidity with their dribbling, giving players greater control of how they use
