“the citizens are proud of purandares contribution in the area of literature, song and drama in maharashtra. the stage of purandares play is still used for the bhajans (devotional hymns) of shivaji maharaj and his disciples,” a ministry of home affairs official told pti. he is a dear friend who shared special moments with his family and friends. the whole nation is shocked. he was a true scholar and academician. he was a great revolutionary thinker. he is not a thinker who had a big ego, but a thinker who sat in the classrooms and pens. he is a truly great thinker. he is a man of vision and perfect understanding of human frailty. he is a mahatma. his patriotism and love for the country is beyond words. he was a great patriot. his life and stories are now being highlighted as a mark of respect and fame. his mission and writings have great importance in the context of our culture and history. his contributions have laid the foundation for the present-day marathi literature and art. his literary works have enriched our cultural heritage of maharashtra and the rest of the world. i am deeply moved on the demise of shivshahir babasaheb purandare today and wish to share my grief with the nation. may his soul rest in peace. this is such an opportunity for a common man to participate in the process of awarding the highest civilian honour to the great patriot. he has left behind a glorious legacy in the fields of history and literature. i have always admired his writings. the creative side of the brain is, most likely, always at its best in chhatrapati shivaji's and purandares' writings. my humble attempt at reading this book could also be called a contribution to history and culture.
