Tips to avoid getting ripped off by the limo companies

If you find yourself in need of a limo one day, there are some things you should know before making a reservation to avoid being ripped off by some limo service companies. First of all, there is no sales tax on limousine service, this will apply if you rent a limo in Chicago or anywhere in Illinois. But they can charge you for fuel, tolls, airport tax parking, etc. If any company asks to pay them then avoid that.

If you don't rent a limo on an hourly basis, let's say you need it for a pick-up/drop-off service, make sure that you are on time otherwise you'll be charged waiting time after 10-15 minutes of the initial pick-up time. If you show up late, they should charge you in 15 minutes increments for the waiting time, anything more than that is what we consider a rip-off, for example, if you came out late 25 minutes after the pickup time, you should be charged only 15 minutes waiting time, the first 10-15 minutes should be free, but some limousine companies will try to charge you for an entire hour. A good limo service will charge you in 15 minutes increments.

More and more customers think that beverages are included in the rate, but in fact, they are provided by your chauffeur in most cases. Make sure you ask your reservation agent if the limo comes with a stocked mini-bar or not, usually they are complimentary for weddings and other hourly limousine service rental. If you have special beverage requests, then you have to pay extra for this.

Other charges that may occur during a Chicago limo service rental because of your negligence: breaking glasses, windows, or anything inside or outside the limo; vomiting or excessive mess; spills, scratches, or stains; playing with the electrical controls which will cause a malfunction.
