Aiming to complete the education, Amulya Chandrasekaran left his job as an HR manager to pursue B.A. in Tamil. Shortly thereafter, the former banker decided to make career change and joined the banking industry. His career goal, eventually, led to him serving over three years in HSBC's product development. Today, Amulya Chandrasekaran is the bank's managing director for product development. He also serves as chairman of the Asia Market Development and Innovation group, a part of HSBC's corporate strategy office. To Amulya Chandrasekaran, the banking industry is like a game of chess, where the most critical move to win the game is to have a plan and that plan entails being prepared. He believes that banks should aspire to be the leaders in product development, in order to offer clients the best products in their markets. 5ec8ef588b
